

DETECTIVE SENIOR CONSTABLE GRAY

Q1 This is an electronically recorded interview between Detective Senior Constable Stuart Gray and Mr Bruce Rowley at the Sydney Water Police on Saturday, the 16th of October, 1999. Also present seated directly in front of me is Senior Constable David Upston from New South Wales Water Police. The time on my watch now is 12.53pm. For the purpose of the record, Bruce, could you please state your full name?

A Bruce Stephen Rowley.

Q2 Your date of birth?

A 5th of the 12th, '44.

Q3 Your current address?

A Care of the Royal Exchange Hotel, Marrickville, 203 Marrickville Road, Marrickville.

Q4 And your occupation?

A Publican.

Q5 O.K. As I've already explained to you prior to the commencement of the interview, Senior Constable Upston and myself are making inquiries in relation to the 1998 Sydney to Hobart Yacht Race and what we intend to do is to speak to you about your role at the Cruising Yacht Club of Australia during that time and any input that you had in race organisation, the management of the 1998 Sydney to Hobart Yacht Race. Do you understand that?

A Yes.
