

SENIOR CONSTABLE UPSTON

Q1 This is an electronic recorded interview between Senior Constable David Upston of the New South Wales Water Police and Cecil George Quilkey on the 21st of the 7th, '99 at the Sydney Water Police. The time on my watch is now 7.49pm. And also present seated directly opposite me is Detective Senior Constable Gray from Bega Detectives. Cecil, Cec, as you like to be known as, for the purpose of the interview, could you please state your full name?

A Cecil George Quilkey.

Q2 And your date of birth?

A The 30th of the 5th, '36.

Q3 And your address?

A 10 Gannon Avenue, Dolls Point.

Q4 And your occupation?

A I'm a boat builder.

Q5 Right. Cec, as a boat builder what, what are your experiences as a boat builder and how you come about to be a boat builder?

A I was apprenticed with Lans Halversons and Sons when I was 14 and a half year old. Served my time with them for 5 years, which the apprenticeship was in those days and since then I've worked for myself as a boat builder in my company. I'm now 63 year old so - - -

Q6 So what, what, at what age did you, did you start your apprenticeship?

A I was 14 and a half year old.